Introduction

Municipal Code Enforcement System (MUNICES) hears a wide range of cases involving violations of municipal ordinances such as

- Police-issued city ordinance tickets
- Building violations
- Zoning violations
- Weed violations
- Fire code violations
- Health Department violations

An administrative hearing is a civil, not a criminal proceeding. Cases filed in adjudication are punishable by fines.

Under the administrative hearing system, a Hearing Officer, not the city entity that issued the ticket, complaint, or notice of violation, hears cases.

A city inspector, civil service officer, or police officer may issue a ticket or notice of violation or file a complaint against you. A case also may be initiated following a citizen or community complaint.

Hearings are held in the

Rock Island City Hall
1528 Third Avenue
Third Floor
Rock Island, IL

Administrative Hearings

Who Must Appear

If you are contesting charges, you may represent yourself or hire an attorney to represent you at your own expense.

In Car Owner Responsibility Assignment (CORA) ordinance cases, the registered owner(s) of the vehicle must appear.

What to expect at your hearing

Hearings are held at the Rock Island City Hall, 1528 Third Avenue, Rock Island, Third Floor.

1. Check in with the clerk – check-in starts 15 minutes before your scheduled hearing time
2. Sit down until your case is called
3. Hearing Officer makes an opening statement identifying himself, his role, expectations of a hearing, and the order in which cases will be called
4. When your case is called, step to the podium in front of the Hearing Officer's bench
  - a. The hearing will begin immediately, and both sides will be given an opportunity to present testimony and evidence
  - b. All live testimony is given under oath and recorded
  - c. You have the right to tell the Hearing Officer your side of the story. This includes using witnesses and physical evidence. Your presentation must deal specifically with the violation before court. All documents presented may be retained by MUNICES as evidence.
5. There are no public defenders and no right to a jury in these administrative hearings.
6. Proper conduct must be maintained at all times. Disruptive people will be removed from the hearing room.
7. Continuances are not allowed unless the Hearing Officer finds good cause.

Failing to Appear

Orders of Default

Failing to appear at your scheduled hearing results in a default order, and you will be subject to any fines.

You have 21 days to request a new hearing by filing a "Motion to Vacate" form. The form may be filed in person by appointment at the MUNICES office or using the form online at the MUNICES website. You will be scheduled for a hearing at which time the Hearing Officer will rule on your request. If your request is granted, you will be expected to proceed with your hearing immediately after the ruling.

Decisions

After both sides have been heard, the Hearing Officer will make a determination based on the evidence presented. If you are found liable, fines and costs will be imposed, and the Hearing Officer's decision will be in the form of a written document you receive at the end of the hearing.

Appealing a Decision

If you disagree with the Hearing Officer's decision, you have 35 days to file an appeal. Pursuant to state law, a final order of the Hearing Officer may be appealed by filing an action for administrative review in Circuit Court of Rock Island County (1317 Third Avenue, Rock Island) within 35 days. Please note that the 35-day period to file an appeal is set by state law, and contacting MUNICES will not suspend the running of the 35-day appeal period. The state administrative review law is located in Section 3-101 through 3-113 of the Illinois Code of Civil Procedure.
